

But it was fun: the first 40 years of radio astronomy at Green Bank.

ERRATA to the 2007May EDITION	ERRORS AND ADDITIONS - last updated January 2008
PAGE #	Comments
ii	2nd from bottom, right side: 300 Foot Telescope 1964 (not 1966)
xiv	photo identified as a farm "at the foot of Little Mountain" -- local folks not sure if that is really where it is. The photo (#956 in the archives) was a telephoto taken from Buffalo Mountain. Not sure which farm is pictured or whether it really was at the foot of Little Mountain.
33	extraneous "Washington, DC" at bottom of page.
100	not T. K. Menon in the photo - it is probably Noresh Mathur
107	people in the photo: Wendell Monk (way up near the center of the dish), Ron Gordon and Don Gordon (mostly hidden behind structure about half way up), left to right behind the travelling feed structure: unidentified, Bedford Taylor?, and unidentified. Left to right in front: Bill Brundage, Bob Viers, unidentified, Charles Cassell?, and Basil Gum.
113	more people identifications: left to right: Ron and Don Gordon (holding the platform), Basil Gum, Wendell Monk, Al Hogan, Bob Viers?, and Fred Crews in the foreground.
200	"Haslam", not "Haslem"
206	reference to Carl Sagan does not appear in the index.
341	"Ode to a Ski Tow" was probably written by Ivan Pauliny-Toth, according to opinions from his German contemporaries.
404	Paul Hemenway should be indexed.
433	paragraph 2 -- "Eddington, or course..." should be : "Eddington, of course..."
529	the cartoon was drawn by Marja Baars
583	blank page - no need for "Index" heading or page number.
back cover	"persistance" should be spelled " persistence"